Texas Car Owners Urged To Have Certificates

All automobile owners in Texas must have certificates of title before January 1, 1942; also, the law stipulates they are not permitted to drive their cars without them.

While motorists have more than two months in which to obtain certificates of title ,their attention is being called to the importance of securing them before the rush the last of this year. Notices have been issued by County Tax Assessor-Collector Clint M. Lewis and are being distributed to all callers at his office.

"Before registering your car for 1942," explained J. R. Stewart, Deputy in the auto registration division, "you must present your certificates for 1939 and 1941 and registration receipt." Each application will cost fifty cents, Mr. Stewart said. He appealed to owners of cars purchased several years ago to look through their household effects and find their original bill of sale, showing conclusively their ownership of the car, for without positive proof of ownership they will be denied the right of registration of their car for 1942. And this means, Deputy Stewart explained, that they will not be issued new driver's licenses.

The new tarffic laws of the state are very specific on this and the department of Public Safety has announced that the law will be rigidly enforced.

Funeral Is Held In Dallas For Elmer S. Barns

The funeral of Elmer S. Barns, 55, of Dallas, an uncle of Mrs. Hugh Ritter and Walter Massie of McKinney, was held in Dallas Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. Mr. Barns was struck by an automobile at Lamar and Arnold Streets in Dallas Monday about noon and died almost instantly.

Several relatives and friends of Mr. Barns, living in McKinney, attended the funeral. Mr. Barns' widow is a cousin of Sam J. Massie, of Dallas, but formerly of McKinney.

The deceased was a native of Indiana, but had lived in Dallas for 21 years. He was with the National Casket Company. He is survived by his wife, two uncles in Bloomington, Ind., and an aunt in Washington, in addition to his niece and nephew in McKinney.

Increase Shown In Employment

Increased employment, resulting from the national defense program, means jobs for many older men who have been out of work for a long time, according to Ernest L. Tutt, Manager of the Dallas Social Security Board Office.

"Some of these older workers, who retired from their regular jobs after reaching age 65 and claimed payment of old-age and survivors insurance benefits, are going back to work for business concerns or for industrial plants.

"Most of these men understand that they should advise the Social Security Board when they have found work in order that payments of benefits may be discontinued while they are employed. A small number of workers, however, have failed to notify the Board that they have found work although each claimant has had an opportunity to learn that he must report such reemployment. The information is given him in connection with his (1) application for benefit, (2) in the award letter, (3) in succeeding letters, and (4) in verbal explanations by the Social Security Board office.

"When Government authorities learn that a worker has received or is receiving wages of $15 a month or more and has also cashed his old-age and survivors insurance check, it becomes necessary to assess a penalty, the minimum of which consists of loss of the cash benefits for the month or months in which he earned good wages. The penalty may be double that amount if that claimant, knowingly, failed to report," Mr. Tutt said.

It was explained that "wages" means earnings of $15 or more in a job that is covered by the Social Security Act. If total earnings of wages is less than $15 per month, no report is necessary and there is no loss of benefits.

"The same regulations," Tutt said, "apply to the widows or to sons and daughters surviving deceased workers who were insured under the Federal system."

Cotton

Cotton sold on the McKinney market Wednesday from 14 1-2 to 7 cents per pound.

Cotton seed are bringing $49.00 per ton on the local market.

SHORTAGE OF FARM LABOR IS REPORTED

Many farmers of Collin County have asserted there is a shortage of labor, says County Agricultural Agent Jack McCullough. He states that some farmers are having trouble getting sufficient labor to gather cotton and corn, and to do plowing that is necessary.

Farmers say that they will welcome farm labor from other sections of the State to come to Collin County.

Graves DeArmond Home from Chicago

Graves (Bud) DeArmond, Spanish War Veteran and well known McKinney resident, has just returned from Chicago, where he spent five weeks at the Edward Hines Veterans Hospital. He said he took medical treatment and had a general checkup.

Mr. DeArmond is high in his praise of that splendid hospital, which was established by the late Edward Hines, millionaire lumberman. He built the institution in memory of his son, who was killed in the war. The hospital was later turned over to the Government. Mr. DeArmond said the Government employs the finest physicians and surgeons obtainable in this hospital and nothing is too good for the patients. The food is excellent. He says he gained seven pounds in his five weeks' stay.

Information For Employes By Social Security

Every employe connected with a county or regional fair, a community festival, rodeo, football game, or concessionaire is cautioned by Ernest L. Tutt, Manager of the Dallas office of the Social Security Board, to make certain that each employer for whom he works is given a record of the worker's social security account number.

This account number should be given to the employer before the employe goes to work. If an individual having no account number will call at the Social Security Board office, located at 504 U. S. Terminal Annex Building in Dallas, he will be issued one. If it is not convenient for the worker to call at the Dallas Social Security Board office, he may secure an application from his local postoffice, fill it out and mail it to the Dallas Social Security Board office, upon receipt of which, if complete and all information is accurate, a number card will be issued and mailed to him promptly. "It requires only a few minutes to secure the account number that will save the worker and each of his employers a lot of time and trouble in the years to come. It is difficult to locate a worker who has not reported his account number in an effort to properly credit his oldage and survivors insurance account with the wage earnings which have been paid him."

It was pointed out by Mr. Tutt that work for concessionaires and amusement places, unless the entire proceeds are for charity, is regarded as covered employment under the Social Security Act, and wages for full-time or part-time work are taxable under the Federal old-age and survivors insurance program.

"The employer," continued Mr. Tutt, "should be as much interested in securing the account number as the worker should be reporting it. It is necessary for the employer to report the account number for each employe when he makes out his quarterly tax report to the Collector of Internal Revenue."

1.26 Inch Rain Falls In City Early Wednesday

A drop of twenty-one degrees in temperature from Tuesday afternoon to Wednesday morning, with a heavy downpour of rain of 1.26 inches, gave McKinney and vicinity another glimpse of fall. Cooler weather was forecast by the weather observer. The cool wave, he said, is on its way across the Western plains from the Rocky Mountains and Pacific Coast and more showers are also predicted later in the day.

The rain Wednesday was not welcomed by farmers, who have again been stopped in gathering the remainder of the cotton and corn crops and also in the preparation of the soil for planting wheat, barley, oats and alfalfa. The ground has hardly had time to dry out since previous rains, explained County Agricultural Agent Jack McCullough, who said this fresh precipitation will make it all the harder for farmers to get into their fields.

Texans Abhor Dictatorships, Says Stevenson

Texans, for all the vastness of their State, are a united people without serious divisions and destructive jealousies and are, to the last man and woman, a people with an abhorence and vital dread of the herded life that a Hitler would impose upon them, Gov. Coke R. Stevenson declared Tuesday night in the principal address at a banquet tendered in honor of the Governor and Mrs. Stevenson by the Texas Dirt Farmers Congress. More than 500 farmers, ranchmen and others attended. Ray Osborne, staff correspondent, writing in the Dallas News, says:

"Dread of such things as Hitler would impose upon us is in our blood, it is our greatest heritage perhaps," the Governor declared. "It is a heritage for which we will sacrifice and fight. and if need be, die. Our unregimented liberties were gained for us by the blood and sweat of those who gave us life.

Texans in First Line of Defense.

"The preservation of our soil is the first line of national defense. Texas is in that first line. Whatever will protect and preserve the soil is for the common good."

The Governor pointed out that Texas is not lacking in appreciation of the problems of agriculture.

"We have already adopted the policy of conservation of our soil, water and other natural resources," he said. "This includes the improvement of livestock and the development of improved species of growing crops.

"I have been doing some visiting lately in this great state of ours. I have seen the wide variety of products of our own soil ranging from the forests of East Texas to the diversified farming of the central sections to the livestock of West Texas, which has caused some men to boast that you could build a wall around Texas andthe rest of the world would starve to death."

Dirt Farmers Honor Stevenson.

Questions Are Answered At Farm Meeting

Pertinent questions on many phases of farming were answered by those who attended the monthly meeting of the Collin County Farm Bureau Tuesday night at the District Court room in this city.

With President Charles Dooley of Plano presiding, the meeting proved both interesting and profitable to all who attended. Discussions were led by County Agricultural Agent Jack McCullough; J. Boyd Webb, Vice President of the Bureau; J. B. Mooney and R. J. Wilson, both representing the AAA in Collin County. Practically everyone present joined in the discussion.

Following the meeting a brief social hour was spent, with hot coffee and doughnuts being served.

The United States destroyer Greer was trailing a submarine when it was attacked last month, according to a report to the Senate Naval Committee by the U. S. Navy Tuesday. The report said that a British plane had signaled the Greer that a submarine was in the vicinity and that later the Greer detected the presence of the undersea craft off the coast of Iceland. It was then that the Greer was attacked, the report said.

Application For Renewal Of Drivers Licenses

Applications for renewal of drivers' licenses will probably be available in McKinney Thursday when two examiners of the Department of Public Safety arrive here from Dallas on their regular weekly trip.

Justice of the Peace Clyde Doyle, in whose office the officers examine applicants for licenses, said Wednesday he expected the new application blanks to be ready Thursday. They are being printed at Austin for use over the entire state. Motorists having old licenses will be able to obtain new ones by filling out the application and sending it with fifty cents to the State Highway Department at Austin. The blanks were to have been ready October 1, but there was a delay in printing them, Judge Doyle said.

America Planning 'Silent' Weapon

Silent attack by air from great heights is the newest war weapon under development by the United States Army.

For years army air corps officers have watched skilled pilots take gliders up to 10,000 feet or more and sail on wings of the wind for hundreds of miles. Many have remarked: "There is one of the answers to combined air and ground maneuvers."

Unfortunately, however, there was no money to develop this new air army.

Now they are hurrying to develop it in the least possible time. More than 20 officers have been trained by experienced glider pilots at Elmira, N. Y., and Biw Meadow, Va., in the art of flying without a propeller—and it is an art and more are going to school every month. The army has ordered an undisclosed number of motorless planes.

Maj.-Gen. H. H. Arnold, former chief of the air corps, said recently the army will "have a glider force second to none, and we will have it ready whenever we need it."

These are no ordinary gliders or sailplanes such as those which sportsmen fly around the sky in sheer enjoyment. They are business ships weighing 5,000 pounds or more fully loaded. They are capable of carrying a squad of men with full equipment—250 pounds per man, including parachutes—for distances up to 200 miles, perhaps more, depending on the wind and the skill of the pilot. Sixty-three per cent of a glider's weight is devoted to payload, since engines, fuel, oil, and tanks are eliminated.

As a result, twice as many parachute troops can be carried in a glider as are carried in an airplane. They can either be scattered over a wide area as the glider swoops down or be landed as a group in one spot.

George Robertson Is Well-Known Frisco Citizen

The following tribute to George Robertson, well known Frisco man, was published by the Dallas News in its Thursday's issue under the heading, "Texans And Texas Towns," by T. A. Price. The tribute to Mr. Robertson follows:

"A favorite story of George Robertson, Assessor and Collector of Taxes for the Frisco Independent School District, in West Collin, is one in which he tells of a visit to his father's pioneer home by Ex-Gov. J. W. Throckmorton and United States Senator Samuel B. Maxey during his childhood. The family lived in a one-room log cabin in Denton County and there were only two beds, so the visitors slept on a pallate spread before the fireplace.

Supper and breakfast for the distinguished pair were prepared on this same fireplace, the narrator tells.

The Frisco official's father moved to Texas from Arkansas in 1854 and Robertson was born in 1872 on the homestead, just over the line from this city in the Eastern edge of Denton County. Moving to Frisco in his early manhood, he has long been identified with its municipal affairs, serving as a member of the school board for twelve years and as a member of the City Council for six years.

Active as a real estate man in this section, Mr. Robertson declares there is a definite back-to-the-farm movement starting in Texas.

YOUR HOME TOWN

COLLIN COUNTY'S COTTON CROP.

COLLIN COUNTY WILL BE pushed to gather 50,000 bales of cotton from its 1941 crop. This is the opinion of most cotton men of the county with whom we have talked the past few days. The county gathered approximately 70,000 bales last year, but the acreage this year is considerably lower than last year, due to a wet Spring, that delayed planting. In fact, some lowland fields were never planted, because they did not sufficiently dry out. Mrs. Annie Farley, special agent of Collin County, says that 24,891 bales were ginned in the county prior to October 1 this year, as compared with 34,315 bales ginned to the corresponding date last year. While some low grade cotton is selling for as low as 14 1-2 cents per pound, yet good quality staple is selling for 17 cents. Cotton seed, which have been selling for $54.00 per ton, went down to $49.00 here over the week-end.

JANE AND BUDDY BROCKMAN.

Miss Jane Brockman, in her last year at the Gulf Park College at Gulf Port, Mississippi, has been honored in being elected Photography Editor of the "Sea Gull," College yearbook. Buddy Brockman, student at Rice, likewise is making an excellent record.

BILL AND COOGAN CAMERON

MR. AND MRS. W. SIMS Cameron of this city are another McKinney couple having two children off at school, Bill Sims Cameron and Jack (Coogan) Cameron. Both are splendid young men and are making fine records in the Texas A. & M. College.

HE IS AN AMERICAN.

He is an American.

He hears an airplane overhead, and if he looks up at all does so in curiosity, neither in fear nor in the hope of seeing a protector.

His wife goes marketing, and her purchases are limited by her needs, her tastes, her budget, but not by decree.

He comes home of an evening through streets which are well-lighted, not dimly in blue.

He reads his newspaper and knows that what it says is not concocted by a bureau, but an honest, untrammeled effort to present the truth.

He has never had a gas mask on.

He has never been in a bomb-proof shelter.

His military training an R. O. T. C. course in college, he took because it excused him from the gym course.

He belongs to such fraternal organizations and clubs as he wishes.

He adheres to a political party to the extent that he desires—the dominant one, if that be his choice, but with the distinct reservation that he may criticize any of its policies with all the vigor which to him seems proper—any other as his convictions dictate, even, if it be his decision, one which holds that the theory of government of the country is wrong and should be scrapped.

He does not believe, if his party is out of power, that the only way in which it can come into power is through a bloody revolution.

He converses with friends, even with chance acquaintances, expressing freely his opinion on any subject without fear.

He does not expect his mail to be opened between posting and receipt, nor his telephone to be tapped.

He changes his place of dwelling, and does not report so doing to the police.

He has not registered with the police.

He carries an identification card only in case he should be the victim of a traffic accident.

He thinks of his neighbors across international borders—of those to the north as though they were across a state line, rather than as foreigners—of those to the south more as strangers since they speak a language different from his, and with the knowledge that there are now matters of difference between his government and theirs, but of neither with an expectancy of war.

He worships GOD in the fashion of his choice, without let.

His children are with him in his home, neither removed to a place of greater safety, if young, nor, if older, ordered ready to serve the state with sacrifice of limb or life.

He has problems, his troubles, his uncertainties, but all others are not overshadowed by the imminence of battle and sudden death.

He should struggle to preserve his Americanism with its priceless privileges.

He is a fortunate man.

He is an AMERICAN.

FOR THE BOUDOIR

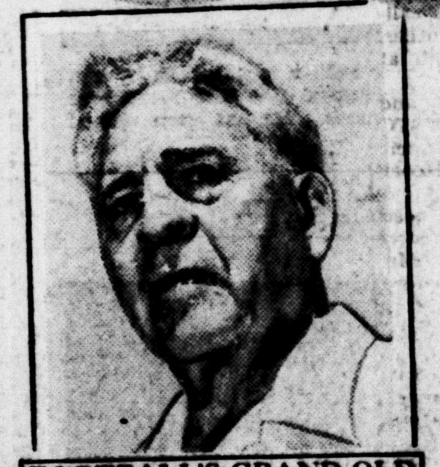
GERMAN SHEPHERD GUARDS REFUGEE KITTEN—Anglo-German relations are all cordiality here. Prince, a 3-year-old German shepherd dog owned by Mrs. Annette Rado of New York, is shown with Skippy, an alley cat born eight weeks ago in Liverpool, England, whom he carries with him wherever he goes.

SHE'S A QUEEN AGAIN—Janice Sulzmann, who only a month before was chosen "Miss Ohio," was named Sept. 24 as Queen of the Ohio Grape Festival at Sandusky. The 19-year-old beauty, winner over eight other candidates, recently competed in the Atlantic City "Miss America" contest.

This little fig leaf is the attire of pretty Dolores Hunter, who was named by fig growers of California as Queen of the California Figarden Day celebration at Fresno.

DESERT DISPATCH RIDERS—North Africa—The racing camel of The Sudanese and the motorcycle of the R.A.F. rider present a contrast in civilization in the battle zone of the Western Desert.

STOP THIS!—That is aim of Willa Roberts (inset) editor of Woman's Home Companion, who is inaugurating campaign for uniform traffic laws and regulations throughout country. She points out that while German bombs killed less than 24,000 in England during 1940, American autos killed more than 34,000 here during same period.



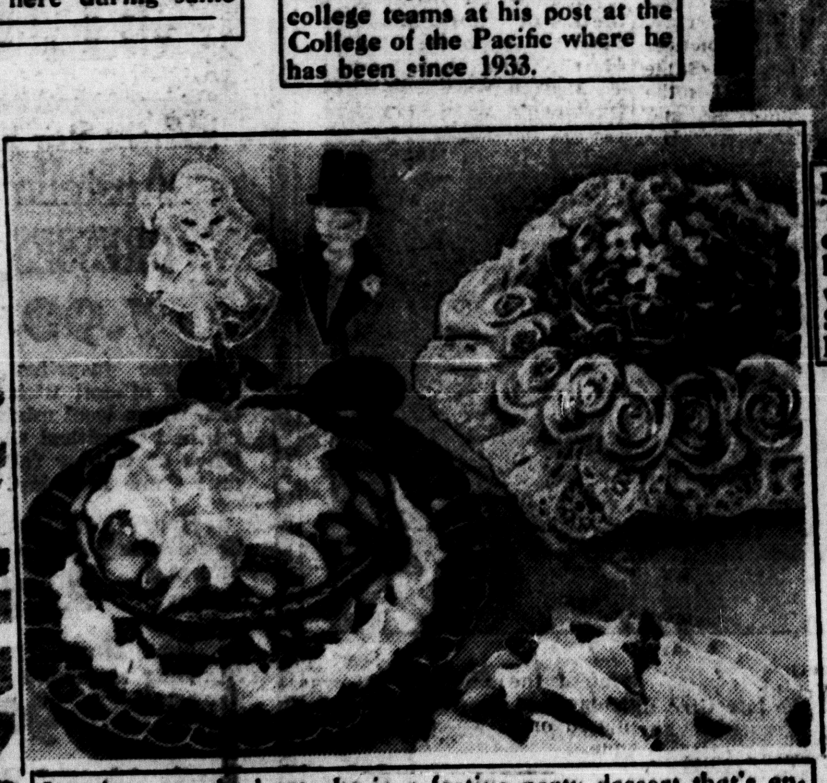
FOOTBALL'S GRAND OLD MAN IN 52nd YEAR OF COACHING—Stockton, Calif.—The "Grand Old Man" of football, Amos Alonzo Stagg, who coached forty years at the University of Chicago, tutoring college teams at his post at the College of the Pacific where he has been since 1933.

V SCARF FOR MISS AMERICA

Rosemary La Planche, "Miss America of 1941" proudly displays her new Victory brisco lifetime scarf symbolizing the spirit stirred by the "Victory" movement in Britain and America. The scarf is a present to Miss America from the "V Club of America," an affiliate of the British-American Ambulance Corps.

LITTLE LASS, BIG BASS—Tiny Stephanie Perske has to climb on a big box to get a close look at this giant black sea bass weighing 286½ lbs., caught off Santa Catalina Island by Sam Rikal with a rod and reel.

DUCKS "FALL" FOR CAMOUFLAGE — Baie Des Outards, (Duck Bay), Quebec — Miss Marion Johnson, American duck hunting enthusiast, introduced a new idea in duck hunting camouflage. She places grass and water weeds in a netting draped over her shoulders enabling her to get real close to the mallards.



Luscious peach shortcake is a festive party dessert that's entirely practical for fall and winter menus. As every wise bride should know, quick-freezing seals in the vitamins and fresh flavor of fruits, vegetables and seafood right at their peak of deliciousness so that all the famous treats of summer on a farm are available for 1941 budget dinners right through the year. All the drudgery of food preparation is done before the quick-freezing is applied. Fragrant red and white roses arranged in Colonial style with a ruffle of lace make a charmingly romantic tribute for a fiance to send his bride-to-be on the day when she gives an engagement announcement party.

"FLYING GRANDMOTHER" OFFERS SERVICES TO CIVIL AIR GUARD

New York, N. Y.—Mrs. Wallace Cohoe, 61, who calls herself "the flying grandmother," is shown in the cockpit of her airplane at the municipal seaplane base at the foot of Wall Street, Sept. 29, after flying from Yonkers, N. Y., to offer the plane and her services to the Civil Air Guard Service.

PAVING CUTTER EXPERT WITH JACK-KNIFE BRUSH—Clarks Island, Me.—Carl Malmstrom, a resident of this town, is a quarry worker by day, swinging a heavy paving cutter's hammer to break up huge blocks of granite, which eventually find their way to the streets of large cities. When the day is done he goes home to his bench where he takes up his hobby of carving wild ducks and sea gulls from blocks of wood.

He was the grandson of pioneer settlers, the late Amos and Sallie Huguley being instrumental in the building of many churches and schools in this community. His maternal grandfather, W. C. The rally started off with a bugle call played by Trumpeter Bill Dowdy of the McKinney High School Band. Justice of the Peace Clyde Doyle delivered the invocation and closed the meeting with prayer.

Following Mr. Ware's address, in which he paid tribute to the boys who are proving their patriotism by going into military training, District Clerk Jim Cantrell introduced the Selectees to their sponsors and explained to them the purposes of the "Your Friend" Club.

McKinney, Denison Play 12-To-12 Tie Here Friday Night

The McKinney High Lions grabbed a long lead and then rode out a Denison High offense that almost swept them off their feet in the last half to earn their second straight tie game here Friday night. The final score was 12-to-12.

It was a great football game, played before a big crowd of 3,000 under perfect conditions, and it proved, beyond a doubt that both McKinney and Denison have high-geared offensives that may make plenty of trouble for their more highly touted district 6 and 5 opponents, respectively.

McKinney had all the edge the first half; Denison almost swept the Lions right out of the stadium in the last half.

McKinney Scores.

McKinney scored quickly, starting from the Denison 41 where George Woods, McKinney's fine fullback, recovered Rowland's fumble in the first three minutes. Ray Hamilton circled right end behind good blocking for 16 to the Denison 25. Denison was offside on the next play and drew a 5-yard penalty. Woods ground out a first down in two plows at the line, and the ball was on the 11. Hamilton circled right end again, carrying to the Jacket 1. Woods went over left guard.

The Lions' eighth try for extra point this season with Royal, an end, kicking was blocked by Heronimus, a Jacket guard.

The Jackets made one or two fair sallies at the Lions line, but their blockers couldn't get the hard-charging little Lion forwards down, and so, in the second quarter, the Lions set their sails goalward again. Starting from their own 40, Hamilton got 1 at end and then rifled a beautiful pass to Royal. The little end grabbed it while off balance, regained his stride and fought his way to the Denison 30, a gain of 29 yards. Woods battled his way around left end for 5. Chapman had Hamilton's pass in his grasp, but couldn't nold it. Woods pounded right tackle for 4 and a first on the Denison 17. He made 6 at the other tackle, and then Hamilton shot a beautiful low pass into the end zone, where Terry Heathington caught it while rolling on backfield had no cance to break it up.

Royal missed again, the season's ninth effort at a field goal.

As surely as the first half belonged to the Lions, the last half was Denison's. The Yellow-Jacket forwards charged the Lion forwards off their feet for the first time this year. The backfield clicked and the Jackets blocking was magnificent.

Denison Offensive.

The Denison lads took the second half kick-off on their 27 and marched it right down for a score. Marshall circled left end for 12 and then shot a long pass to Ball for 19 and a first down on the McKinney 34. He made 7 at center and Rowland added 3 that barely made another first on the Lion 25. Marshall failed to hit Hicks with a long pass, and then raced through the center of the Lion line to the 17. Another pass failed and Rowland came through the center of the line for another 5 and a first on the 12. Denison was penalized 15 for holding on the next play. That only inspired them to greater efforts. Marshall fied one to Hicks who caught it on the dead run on the McKinney 10 and ambled over for the Jackets' first score.

Hicks' kick was low. As the fourth quarter got will underway, Batsell, the Jacket blocking back, intercepted one of Hamilton's passes on the Lion 34. McKinney drew 5 for too many times out. Two plays made 4 yards and on fourth down Marshall barely scrambled through center for the precious yard and a first down on the Lion 24. There, the Jackets uncovered a deceptive play. A reverse, with Ball carrying behind a wave of interference, swept the Lions out of the way perfectly. It made 18 and a first on the Lion 6. Twice they held, but on third down, Marshall went round right end standing up to tie the count.

Batsell's kick lacked a foot of crossing the bar and the score was again tied for the evening.

Teams Well aMtched.

McKinney and Denison Friday night were well matched enough to rate a tie if two teams ever did. The Lions got the jump, on a break in the first half and made one touchdown. They really made their second one the hard way, on a sustained drive. Denison had the same luck in the last half, one touchdown from close-up on an intercepted pass; another that started way out and was earned, yard by yard.

The Lions were outweighed. Hardly a team in the Texas Interscholastic League does not outweigh them. But Denison was the lightest team they have faced. The advantage was about 9 pounds to the man in favor of the sJckets.

The Lions depended as usual on the power of George Woods' plunges and the accuracy of Ray Hamilton's bullet passes. Both came through splendidly. The ends, Terry Heathington and "Cotton" Royal, were again brilliant on offense, but the powerful Denison end sweeps, executed with unusual speed and brilliant deployment was too much for them once or twice in the last half.

Tackle through tackle the Lion linesmen fought splendidly and seemingly had again turned the tide on the heftier Denison forwards in the final few minutes.

Carter, a previously unsung halfback, turned in some great tackles for the Lions on defense and performed dependably on offense.

For Denison, Marshall, a regular siege gun of a passer, and a shifty runner; Rowland, a hard plunger, and Gaines a fin runner and good defensive back, stood out in the backfield. In the line, Harshberger and Hicks, the ends, and Heronimus, a big 190-pound tackle, were outstanding. Ball, a sub back came through for the Jackets in the clutches.

The Lions have no alibi. They have already had a successful season no matter what happens —with a gang of lightweight youngsters, who were counted out before they started, but haven't been knocked off their feet yet.

Denison Band Performs.

During the few minutes relinsuished to the two bands and Drum and Bugle corps of the two High Schools, the Denison High School Band and Drum and Bugle Corps, gave a splendid performance with all of the lights blacked out and the members having electric flashlights on their caps, and the band playing a selection, "Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy" for the occasion. The McKinney High School Band and Drum and Bugle Corps under the direction of Prof. Stewart Jernigan, also gave a beautiful presentation of marching on the field during the half.

There was a large number of McKinney and Denison fans, estimated to be about three thousand, present for the kickoff. The Denison cheer leaders and their Band kept the air filled with yells and cheering songs for their team, while the McKinney yell leaders, Miss Belva Welch, head yell leader for the girls, Jack Graves, head yell leader for the boys, and the assistant yell leaders, Anna McClelland, John Brown Murphy, Ann Malone Erwin, and C. J. Adair, had the McKinney fans giving out plenty of snappy yells, which pepped the Lions up from the beginning of the game.

The McKinney High Lions, as well as the football fans, are looking forward to the game next Friday night, when the Lions invade Denton Broncos at Denton.

STUDENTS CONFIDENT LIONS TO BEAT DENISON.

Two victories and one tie by the McKinney Lions this football season have given confidence to student supporters of the team, a reporter learned this week. Milton Thomas, former grid player, thinks McKinney will win 6-0.

J. C. Sheets says nobody will be shut out but the Lions will win by a touchdown.

"Of course, we will win," was the response of Edwina Lewis.

Don Chapman, who probably will see action in the game, declared his belief McKinney will win by two touchdowns, but Metz LaFollette, who played last year, believes a six-point margin is all we can expect.

Mary Helen Payne, asked by the reporter who will win, replied: "Why, don't you know?"

Dads Club Shown How Civilians Can Cooperate

Members of the McKinney Dads Club were told how civilians can cooperate with firemen to suppress sabotage and incendiarism in the present world crisis, by Morey Neely, member of the McKinney Volunteer Fire Department, who was the principal speaker at the monthly meeting Monday night in the Walter B. Wilson Auditorium of the McKinney High School.

Mr. Neely was introduced by Jim Cantrell, Program Chairman, after the meeting had been opened by President C. Hansford Ray.

The attendance was good and Mr. Neely's remarks were followed with the keenest interest. He had made a close study of the tactics employed by saboteurs, even to the construction of time bombs and other incendiary instruments. He had attended an intensive course on this subject at College Station recently when firemen from all parts of Texas were given instructions by state and national authorities.

After his address Mr. Neely distributed pamphlets containing valuable information, which he said, every civilian should know. Mr. Neely illustrated his remarks with graphic charts to bring out technical facts, particularly with reference to the construction of incendiary bombs and he explained what terrible destruction could be caused by them.

Commission To Provide More Parking Space

Additional parking space downtown for business men and shoppers will be provided by the City Commission, it was announced Monday night during the weekly meeting of the Commission. A free parking lot about 100 by 150 feet, at the rear of the Masonic Temple and the Knox Used Car Lot, will be opened to the public shortly. The lot is being leveled off now and will be graveled. It will provide parking space for a large number of automobiles, thus relieving the congestion on downtown streets.

It was also decided at the Commission meeting to begin work as soon as possible on widening and straightening Standifer Street from Tennessee to College. The street will be leveled off and several small bridges built. This work will be done by the city and later on, if the property owners so desire, the street will be paved, but this is not being considered at this time.

The City Waterworks Repair and Maintenance Department, which had been located in the rear of the City Hall, was moved to the Pumping Station on Rockwall Street, reported E. L. Taylor, Waterworks Superintendent. He had been instructed by the Commission to make the changes for convenience and efficiency.

A number of routine matters were discussed by the Commission and the session proved an unusually busy one. Present were: Mayor Tom W. Perkins, Commissioners Lyman D. Robinson and J. H. Snapp, City Attorney Henry C. Miller and City Secretary G. Frank Wolford.

Tax Statements Of County Soon To Go In Mails

County tax statements are expected to be mailed to taxpayers by County Tax Assessor-Collector Clint M. Lewis in the near future. The Legislature, at its special session, passed the road bond assumption bill, the counties waiting for that action before fixing tax rates. The tax rolls of Collin County are in Austin at this time awaiting the approval of State Comptroller George H. Sheppard.

After the approval is received here, it will take at least a week to mail out all of the statements, in the opinion of Mr. Lewis, and it may even take longer.

Miss Katherine Griffin and Ray Thomas of Fort Worth were week-end guests of her Mother, Mrs. Lizzie Griffin.

Miss Nell Lacy, graduate nurse of the Mrs. L. C. Rambo School of Nursing, San Angelo, has been visiting her Mother, Mrs. Virgie Lacy, the past week at Altoga. Monday she left for Dallas where she has accepted a position as nurse in the Dr. Frank Carmen Sanitarium.

Cotton

Cotton sold on the McKinney market Monday from 14 1-2 to 17 cents per pound.

Cotton seed are bringing $49.00 per ton on the local market.

Dr. Vermillion And Wife Will Move To McKinney Soon

Purchasing a nice home at 307 North Waddill Street, Dr. and Mrs. H. F. Vermillion, who have lived away from McKinney for many years, are moving back to their native home, Collin County. They will take possession of their new home November 15.

Dr. Vermillion, who was born and reared in Collin County, is one of the foremost Baptist Ministers in the Southwest. For twelve years he was President of the Baptist Sanitarium at El Paso and for several years he has been Pastor of the First Baptist Church at Walnut Ridge, Ark. He resigned that Pastorate and will devote his time to Evangelical Work, he said.

The residence on North Waddill Street, which is one of the nicest homes and one of the best located in McKinney, was purchased from Chief of Police Ed Blakeman, the deal being handled by Tom W. Perkins and Frank Blackwell of the McKinney Realty Company.

90 PER CENT OF FARMERS' LOANS PAID

Collin County ranks fourth in repayment of emergency crop loans made by the Farm Credit Administration, says W. E. Farwell, Regional Manager, of Dallas.

More than 90 per cent of the 158,940 loans, totaling $10,764,649.88, made to small farmers of seventy-one counties in the East Texas Chamber of Commerce area, by the emergency crop loan section of the Farm Credit Administration, for purchase of seeds for the ten-year period ending June 30, has been repaid, according to Mr. Farwell.

In a summary of ten years' operation of the program in East Texas for the regional chamber's magazine, East Texas, lists the six counties under Dallas Area Field Supervisor J. L. Berry, high in the list in the matter of promptness of repayment, and points out that in 1933, 1938 and 1939 collections in the seventy-one-county zone reached 95 per cent.

Of the more than $10,000,000 loaned, East Texas farmers repaid $9,695,435.34, he reported, or 90.07 per cent

Ranked in the order of the the highest percentage of collections, the six counties of the Dallas area are listed as follows:

Third, Rockwall County: 445 loans; $59,503 loaned; $57,647.94 repaid; balance, $1,855.06; per cent collected, 96.88.

Fourth, Collin County: 380 loans; $35,216.25 loaned; $34,103.96 repaid; $1,112.29 unpaid; collected, 96.84 per cent.

Eighth, Hunt County: 1,003 loans; $77,047.42 loaned; $73,662.18 collected; $3,385.24 unpaid; collected, 95.61 per cent.

Thirteenth, Grayson County: 914 loans; $60,886.28 loaned; $57,715.41 collected; $3,170.87 unpaid; collected, 94.79 per cent.

Thirty-fifth, Kaufman County; 2,214 loans; $211,794.10 loaned; $194,241.96 collected; $17,552.14 unpaid; collected, 91.71 per cent.

Forty-ninth, Dallas County: 1,087 loans, $111,833.54 loaned; $98,712.50 collected; $13,121.04 unpaid; collected, 88.27 per cent.

"This repayment record," the article states, "speaks well for the character and ability of the small East Texas farmers, the dependability of East Texas agriculture, the sound administration of the Dallas emergency crop loan office and its field staff and the co-operation of local leaders."

Celina Man Is Speaker On Farm Organization

"The Imperative Need of Farm Organization" was the subject of an informative address delivered by George Jenkins, of Celina, Chairman of the Collin County Land For Use Planning Committee, at the meeting of District 4 of the Farm Bureau Federation, held at Dallas a few days ago. The district meeting was attended by prominent farmers from many North Texas counties.

Mr. Jenkins told the farmers and others attending the meeting that he had been studying this subject for more than eight years and the more he thought of it the greater did he see the need for proper organization among farmers. He called attention to other groups that have organized and of the benefits they gained.

"We represent one-fourth of the population of America," he said, "and we are the last to organize. Even at this late date many do not fully appreciate the value of organization. I have not lost faith in the farmer, but we must admit that he is often slow to act in his own behalf. We can accomplish infinitely more through organization than by standing alone."

Oil Association Discusses Jobs For Tomorrow

The Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association has again favored us with a full page advertisement entitled "Jobs for Tomorrow," which was paid for by various units of the industry.

The ad reads as follows:

"The chemical laboratories of the petroleum industry are now laying the foundation for industries of the future. Out of their research are being created new products and more efficient ways of making old ones. Synthetic rubber, plastics, explosives, basic chemicals and scores of other essentials developed in petroleum laboratories are already being made on a commercial scale.

"These scientific discoveries of materials vital to peace-time needs, as well as National defense, are opening up new fields of industrial activity.

"Texas as the leading oil state is playing an important part in the creation of these new American enterprises. As a result, many young Texans now preparing themselves in our schools and colleges will find places in the industries resulting from this research.

"The test tubes of today make the jobs of tomorrow."

Many Suggestions Offered McKinney High Mentors

McKinney football fans, who attended the second meeting of the newly-formed McKinney Drug Store Coaches Association at the McKinney High School Cafeteria at 6:40 o'clock Friday morning, heard some "valuable" suggestions given McKinney High Coaches. Head Referee George W. James was in charge. He was assisted by Coach J. W. (Swede) McMurry in conducting the meeting.

As readers are aware, the organization, first of its kind in the history of McKinney, is humorous in its sessions, but with an ultimate serious aim of maintaining interest in the high school football team and continuing the close relationship between the school, team and football fans.

Chief Kicker Jack McCullough was present and was one of the principal speakers, giving Coach McMurry some "valuable" suggestions on how to develop kickers for the football team. Others who spoke or who made suggestions to the McKinney Coaching staff were Dr. J. Knight, Chas. Jackson, Glenn Couch, Twain Massie, Jack Warden, Judge H. H. Neilson, and others.

Mr. Warden, speaking in a serious vein, told of the efforts of the Jaycees in sponsoring ward school football and said that plans are going forward for the four teams, each representing a ward school, to play at Newsome Field some night soon. He urged the cooperation of all football enthusiasts in sponsoring grid interest through urging early training of the ward school boys in the fundamentals of the game. It is hoped that sweaters will be purchased for the ward school teams, he said.

Twain Massie was thanked for some scales now used by Coach McMurry in accurate weighing of his grid players.

A tempting breakfast was served the Drug Store Coaches members by Mrs. W. C. Patterson, in charge of the cafeteria, assisted by Mrs. J. W. McMurry.

Fire Sunday destroyed a 42-foot Frisco Railroad bridge North of Celina. The foundation piling and caps were all that were saved. Origin of the fire is not known.

Broomsticks and national defense might be a strange combination, but not to members of the American Junior Red Cross at St. Paul, Minn. Sawed into discs, sandpapered and painted black and red the sticks make a right impressive set of checkers. A drive is under way there by the Junior members to collect discarded broomsticks and mop handles which, upon being transformed into checkers, are sent to nearby army camps.

A government official declared that American motorists could save 185,000,000 gallons of gasoline a year and conserve important quantities of oil and tires by holding their top speed to 45 miles per hour. John Carmody, Federal Works Administrator, said also that such a program of moderation would prevent "wastage of human material resources of the nation through accidents." Mr. Carmody said studies of the Public Roads Administration, a unit of the FWA, showed that traffic on state heavier than last year and that traffic deaths were up in about the same proportion.

FARMERS GET PRAISE FOR CASTOR CROP.

North and Central Texas farmers, including those of Collin County, who are harvesting castor beans planted last summer at the request of the United States Department of Agriculture have been praised by B. F. Vance, Chairman of the USDA defense board for thei rco-operation in the defense effort.

Mr. Vance said the farmers are to be commended for their willingness to embark on a project involving the production of a plant with which they had had no experience.

Last Spring, when it appeared a shortage of vital oils might materialize because of inability to transport castor beans from Brazil and India and tung oil from China, an interbureau committee, appointed by the secretary of agriculture, recommended increased production of the castor bean in this country. The object was to build up a reserve for planting in 1942 in the event future importations were curtailed.

Although castor oil might not replace tung oil in all instances, without sacrificing some elements of quality, it is conceded that the availability of adequate reserves of dehydrated castor oil will make tung oil available for strictly indispensable uses, and thereby be a material assistance in defense efforts.

Castor oil is used as a lubricant for the recoil mechanism of big guns and for bombers operating at high altitudes. It also is capable of replacing tung oil in the manufacture of special-purpose, quick-drying paints and varnishes.

The Texas Power and Light Company had 40,000 pounds of the seed available and donated them to the United States Department of Agriculture through the Texas A. & M. College Extension Service, co-operating with local AAA Committees. The seed were then distributed by these agencies to farmers in an eleven-county area in Central and North Texas especially adapted to the growth of the castor bean.

The AAA amended its regulations so that deductions in payments would not be made if the excess soil-depleting acreage, equal to the larger of five acres or 5 per cent of the cultivated land, was due to the planting of castor beans.

The farmers in the eleven-county area, whose castor bean crops will be threshed by the Texas Power and Light Company, are guaranteed 3½ cents per pound for cleaned seed by the Commodity Credit Corporation.

"This new venture," Mr. Vance said, "is another effort of our country to forestall shortages of products essential to national defense."

Counties included in the project are Collin, Dallas, Ellis, Fannin, Grayson, Hill, Navarro, Lamar, Van Zandt, McLennan and Bell.

A hitch-hiking hen, made famous by stories of her riding adventures that have appeared in the Madisonville Meteor, Madison County, is now in the movies. Pictures of the hen have been made by a Universal Newsreel camerman, and her riding stunts will go on the screen throughout the nation. The hen, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Jay Grizzle, of near Madisonville, hops into the auto when it starts to town and stays around it until it is driven back home. Sometimes the hen does her bit for national defense by laying an egg in the auto.

TEXAS RANKS FIFTH IN DEFENSE BOND PURCHASES.

In May, June and July of this year Texans bought $17,847,000 worth of United States Defense Savings Bonds, the U. S. Treasury announced. This covers only Serial E bonds, the smaller ones sold to the general public, and not Series F and G bonds sold to larger investors.

In only four other States were as many of these bonds sold. Californians bought $21,476,000; Illinois, $26,481,000; New Yorkers, $76,077,000; and Pennsylvanians, $23,199,000. Ohioans bought just a little less than Texans, a total of $17,629,000.

WHEN TO QUIT ADVERTISING.

The best time to quit advertising is—When the population ceases to multiply, and the generations that crowd on after you and never heard of you stop coming on.

When you have convinced everybody whose life will touch yours that you have better goods and lower prices than they can get anywhere else.

When you can perceive it to be the rule that men who never advertise are out-stripping their neighbors in the same line of business.

When every man has become so thoroughly a creature of habit that he will certainly buy this year where he bought last year.

When younger and fresher houses in your line cease starting up and using newspapers in telling the people how much better they can do for them than you can.

When you would rather have your own way and fall than take advice and win.—Western Motor Transport.

ONCE LUXURY YACHTS NOW SAIL WITH NAVY.

The navy's combat auxiliaries and training craft now include some of the most luxurious built in recent years.

Private yachts of all sizes and types, several costing their owners up to $2,000,000, have been commandeered by the navy to supplement its fleet of small patrol and other duty vessels.

Former owners include Harold S. Vanderbilt, Maj. Edward Bowes, H. E. Manville, and Norman B. Woolworth. Their sumptuous pleasure craft were built at tremendous cost to entertain their friends and visiting royalty. Many of them boast oak-paneled state-rooms, gold-plated electric fixtures, and marble bath-rooms as sea-going comforts.

Most of the expensive features have been retained, the navy says, although the bars have been removed. Now the former yachts are serving as torpedo boats, training ships, coastal patrol boats, and even as mine-sweepers.

MASSIVE TEXAS BOMBER PLANT.

Believed to be the nation's largest aircraft plant, the Consolidated Aircraft bomber assembly building on the shores of Lake Worth, near Fort Worth, Texas, will stretch fourteen city blocks in length when completed around January 1, at a cost of $10,000,000, says the Plano Star-Courier. Close to 3,500 workmen are now swarming over the steel structure.

Plant designs are now 80 per cent complete with actual construction 25 per cent complete, said Captain J. H. Anderson, constructing quartermaster. The same schedule is being held at a similar plant in Tulsa, Okla.

The plant will be virtually sound-proof. It will be acoustically treated to hold down the noise level and to absorb sound of high frequency. All of this, say experts, makes for better working conditions.

Adjacent to the bomber is a landing field that is being graded to the smoothness of a floor. It will measure a mere 1,850,000 square yards when complete.

Bombers of the B-24 type will be assembled at the Fort Worth plant, but Consolidated Aircraft officials recently asserted it was possible the mammoth B-32's also would be rolled off the line after production starts.

WAKE UP, AMERICA!

Speaking recently to an audience of business men and civic leaders, says a contemporary, William S. Knudsen, director general of the Office of Production Management of the federal government, said:

"This defense job of ours is getting to be of such magnitude that we must be prepared to accept sacrifices in our daily life. We must learn that we cannot have as good a time and be involved in war and war preparations, no matter how far away the war may be at this particular time.

"There will be more of us working six days a week instead of five," he continued, "more plants working three shifts instead of one or two. There is bound to be longer working hours and a lower standard of living for America, if we are to make good on our national rearmament program."

Never were truer words spoken than those uttered by Mr. Knudsen. The trouble is that there are so few persons who will believe them in their entirety. The United States is not yet awake to the gravity of the world situation. Most of us fail utterly to comprehend the magnitude of the task to which we have set our hand for the defense of our liberties. We are prone to think we can get by with a few minor inconveniences. Our thoughts turn to pleasures, not to sacrifices.

'It is up to us," declared Mr. Knudsen, "and I mean all of us, to get behind the President and our government and see this job through, regardless of the sacrifices we have to make in our comfortable standards of living."

America, awake! Don't let it be said of us, as it was of the nations of Europe—Too little, and too late!

Rev. Klein Is Speaker Friday At Rotary Club

Morale is built from three angles, "success, propaganda and sincere conviction," said Rev. Richard S. Klein, Pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church, in a forceful address Friday noon at the weekly luncheon of the McKinney Rotary Club, held at the First Christian Church.

The general subject of the program was "Building Community Morale." The capable young minister was introduced by Loren King, who with Roy C. Roberts, constituted the Program Committee for the week. President Lyman D. Robinson opened the meeting and then turned it over to the Committee. Mr. King presided.

Dr. M. S. Minton, Second Vice President of the Club, conducted the installation ceremonies when John Pope, Sanitarian of the City-County Health Unit, was inducted into the organization.

"We accomplish community moral from three angles," said Rev. Kein. He continued: "Morale is built, first, upon success, which is very good, but does not always last. It is sometimes diminished or even killed by reverses or failure.

"Second, morale is built on propaganda, flag-waving, loud talking and other methods to arouse the people.

"Third, and by far the most lasting, and, therefore, the most important, is morale built upon a man's ability to live up to his convictions in life, win or lose. That sort of morale builds manhood, nations and civilization."

After the meeting President Robinson said it was one of the finest addresses the Rotarians have heard in a long time.

McKinney Colored Team Meets Defeat In Denton Game

In a one-sided battle, the McKinney colored football team was defeated 40-to-2- by the Denton Dragons in the first game this season on the Denton field Wednesday night.

The Denton Record-Chronicle gives an account of the game as follows:

The Fred Douglass Dragons, playing their first home game of the season here last night, crushed the visiting McKinney colored eleven by the one-sided score of 40 to 2.

The Dragons, sparked by James Williams and Sam Hayes in the backfield, rolled up a 20 to 2 count in the first half. In the second half the locals raun up three more touchdowns and two extra points, while holding the McKinney boys scoreless.

The First Dragon score came midway in the first quarter, after long gains by passes and ground plays, put the ball to rest on the 6 vard line. From there Williams hit the center of the line for a touchdown. Williams also passed for the extra point. This gave the local a seven point lead which was never in danger thereafter.

Early in the second period McKinney accounted for its only marker in the contest, a safety. Hayes for the Dragons had dropped back to pass and was tackled behind his goal line.

Collin Farmers Fatten Turkeys For Market

Collin County farmers are now fattening up their turkeys for the Thanksgiving season, and while the crop will not be quite as large as that of the normal output, local produce dealers said the quality will be well up to par and prices to the farmers satisfactory.

From twelve to fifteen carloads are usually shipped to Northern and Eastern markets from ollin County during the Thanksgiving season, from November 1 to Thanksgiving Day, and produce men predict that close to a dozen cars will be shipped this year.

This cool weather is beneficial to turkeys, farmers say, and they report that they are feeding their birds for market now. They caution against sending the fowls to market before they are in good condition because this will force the price down, and with conditions as they are affecting the price of other commodities, turkeys will bring good prices if the birds are properly fed and cared for before they are shipped to market.

With the few turkeys offered on the local market Friday, the prices were quoted at from 11 to 15 cents per pound by local produce dealers.

The heavy movement to market will not begin until after November 1, as far as the McKinney market is concerned. Thanksgiving will be observed in McKinney, as in the rest of Texas, on Thursday, November 27.

Jas. E. Wiley, who is making his home in San Marcos, sends in Daily Courier-Gazette renewal, for which we thank him.

Postponement Of The Annual Pure Food Show

Mrs. J. J. Thompson, Manager of the Pure Food Show, sponsored annually by the ladies of the First Presbyterian Church, makes the following announcement: "So many inquiries have been made of the ladies of the First Presbyterian Church as to when their annual Pure Food Show will be held that they feel an explanation of its postponement should be made publicly.

"The Show has grown to such proportions during its 31 years of existence that the full capacity of the Municipal Coliseum is needed to accommodate the exhibitors. At present the Red Cross Work Room is occupying a part of the building and rather than have a Show not up to the usual standard or, what is more important, rather than do anything which would interfere with the activities of the Red Cross the ladies deem it wise to dispense with the Show this year.

"In this connection the sponsors of the Annual Pure Food Show wish to thank the patrons of the Show for their continued interest and encouragement. They realize it has become somewhat of an institution in the life of our community and regret exceedingly that the present National Emergency makes it necessary that this action must be taken. They also wish to assure you that when the present emergency is over the Annual Pure Food Show will be resumed "bigger and better than ever."

The ladies further announce in the columns of these papers, the postponement of the show for this year.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hayes of McKinney have announced the birth of a daughter, Massie Jane, Friday night. Mrs. Hayes is the former Miss Lorita Fifer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Fifer.

COLORADO CITIES FACE GAS SHORTAGE AS FLOOD CUTS LINE

Denver, September 23 (A.P.).—The pressure in a gas main supplying several principal Colorado cities sank lower and lower today as workmen strove to repair a pipe line running from Northern Texas that was broken near Clayton, New Mexico, by a flood.

Homes using natural gas for heating and cooking faced the prospect of a completely exhausted supply if the workmen fail to overcome the still-flowing flood waters by noon today, Public Service Company officials said in Denver.

Denver, Colorado Springs, Pueblo and other cities are served by the pipe line. Industrial gas users in the three ceased operation yesterday to conserve the fuel for home consumption.

The flood severed the 22-inch main line yesterday morning when it swirled down Seneca Creek, usually a dry bed of sand, between Clayton and Mount Dora, New Mexico.

Stringing lifelines and working in tossing rowboats, repair crews began work on a six-inch auxiliary bypass around the main pipe. Its capacity, officials said, if it is possible to lay it, would suffice only if temperatures rise from the 30s and 40s, where they have hovered for two days beneath widespread rain clouds.

A standby plant, producing artificial gas, was in operation in Denver, but its capacity will not be sufficient without much warmer weather, they said.
